

2024 Corporate
Gift Guide

Designed, tested and proven in the ultimate outdoor test lab — New Zealand, Macpac gear is engineered to take on the elements.

If your job requires you or your team to spend time outdoors, this gift guide offers a great range of Macpac products to help you weather anything. Macpac's Corporate Team has more than 40 years experience in the outdoors, working with businesses and education providers across New Zealand and Australia. We can recommend Macpac products suited to your requirements or customised product to suit, and also provide advice on embroidery and repairs.

We offer special pricing to commercial and education customers, including bulk purchase discounts – only available through the Macpac Corporate Team. Please contact us for a quote or to discuss your outdoor equipment and apparel requirements.
